The Court asked whether defendant had anything to say why judgment should not be pronounced. Because no sufficient cause to the contrary was shown, or appeared to the Court, the Court adjudged the defendant guilty as charged and convicted and ordered that:

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a special assessment of $200, which is due immediately.

It is ordered that the defendant shall pay to the United States a total fine of $75,000, consisting of the following: Count One, a fine of $37,500; and Count Two, a fine of $37,500. The total fine shall bear interest as provided by law.

The fine amount of $50,000 shall be paid immediately. The balance of the fine, $25,000, shall be paid within 90 days.

The defendant shall comply with General Order No. 01-05.

Pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984, it is the judgment of the Court that the defendant, Levon Tebelekian, is hereby placed on probation on Counts One and Two of the Information for a term of three years. This term consists of three years on each of Counts One and Two of the Information, all such terms to run concurrently under the following terms and conditions:

1. The defendant shall comply with the rules and regulations of the U. S. Probation Office and General Order 318;
2. The defendant shall participate for a period of eight months in a home detention program without electronic monitoring and shall observe all rules of such program, as directed by the Probation Officer;

The defendant waives his right to appeal.

The Court ORDERS defendant's bond exonerated.

In addition to the special conditions of supervision imposed above, it is hereby ordered that the Standard Conditions of Probation and Supervised Release within this judgment be imposed. The Court may change the conditions of supervision, reduce or extend the period of supervision, and at any time during the supervision period or within the maximum period permitted by law, may issue a warrant and revoke supervision for a violation occurring during the supervision period.
